

Getting Things Done- The Art of Stress-Free Productivity Workshop

The Getting Things Done® workshop, by Vital Smarts, teaches the skills you need to manage the constant flow of requests, tasks, and interruptions you encounter all day. By learning how to capture, clarify, and organize your to-do list, you are more likely to make the best decision about where to spend your time/energy and prevent critical projects from slipping through the cracks, ultimately becoming more productive. When you are equipped with those skills, you are less likely to experience stress and burnout.

Learn how to:

- Capture all incoming requests efficiently
- Process your inbox more effectively
- Tackle projects rather than procrastinating
- Organize tasks and projects
- Align time and resources to be productive, not just busy
- And much more!
