Building an Education Foundation: Your Path to Impact

Many LEAs have started an educational foundation and are actively managing the foundation. While other LEAs are exploring whether an educational foundation is right for their LEA. The considerations from establishing the purpose of the foundation, identifying potential funding and fundraising sources, creating the legal entity and accounting for the foundation. This webinar will showcase LEAs that have started a foundation and the benefits and challenges that they have encountered from the development to implementation phases. This webinar will also provide a roadmap to LEAs that are interested in starting an educational foundation.
